ute. Such a crowd collected I could not see all who were fighting. W. twenty or twenty-five yards from scuffle. Saw Harmon shot. Harmon shot was fourth shot, in my opinion. Some shots were fired after Harmon shot. Saw Harmon put rifle in inches of Ebling's neck and fire. Ebling was down when Harmon shot.

SAM'L. W. DAVIS—Live 18 miles from Hopkinsville. Was at the drinks' Spring Monday, the 2nd of Aug. Know Wm. Stanley, Red and Harmon Stanley also. All knew Colonel Ebling. Colonel Ebling and Wm. Stanley were in scuffle when I first saw them together. Ebling was retreating and Wm. Stanley was advancing on him. Red and Harmon were following up Ebling and trying to shoot him. Red ran up to Ebling and struck him in head with gun. Harmon then shot Ebling in neck with rifle. Ebling was down when he was struck at shot. Bill Stanley was scuffling with him when shot was fired.

HENDRICKS. REED—Live in Stuart. Geo. B. Reed—Know Wm. Stanley. Slightly acquainted with other two defendants. Know Ebling slightly. William Stanley came up to me near wheel of fortune. I asked for ticket and stepped off get ticket. He run his hand in get ticket. Ebling said "I'd like to keep your hands off me, if you don't do it I am going to kill you." Ebling drew pistol and Wm.

with Ebling's pistol, some one took it out of my hand," don't know who Bob Attkerson, John Wilson and Andy Eells arrested me at my home.

DAVID GRACE—I arrested Hendricks and Harmon at their home, Aug. 9. Was not at Hendricks' Spring on the night of difficulty. Saw dead man. Examined wounds. His brains were oozing out, was also shot in neck.

GREEN JOHNSON—Col.,—Was at Hendricks' Spring on day of election. Saw Colonel Ebling and Wm. Stanley talking just before difficulty. Heard Wm. Stanley say "don't get mad." Heard Ebling say "I am not mad." After about fifteen minutes saw row. Saw Colonel Ebling shouting. Ebling shot first shot fired. There were probably fifteen or twenty shots fired. Used to know Colonel Ebling but he had grown out of my latitude.

JIM DULIN, col.,—Was at Hendricks' Spring on day of election. First I knew of fight saw Wm. Stanley and a white man scuffling. They both fell, white man on top, the other saw pistol shining. White man asked for his pistol. Saw man shoot. Harmon immediately afterwards saw white man shoot three shots. Heard second shot struck Wm. Stanley. Heard some one say "Shot him that d—n negro," just before firing commenced. When Harmon a man renounced their guns out of Fayer's light's wagon where they remarked them that morning. They remarked during the heat of the campaign.

L. Wright, a wealthy farmer, made the statement that Nixon had stolen the election and would steal again if he had a chance. Nixon was defeated and has just brought a $20,000 libel suit against Wright.

DEAR SIR:—It affords me pleasure to give you this report of the return of my scalp to its healthy condition, and the checking of an itching and scaly condition, all of which have been relieved. I procured a bottle of your Hair Producer and Cleanser and only after a few weeks has elapsed, and my hair is growing thickly and I would think your Producer and Cleanser a success. Found Dead.

The dead body of a negro man named Tom Atkins was found in the woods between Pembroke and Fairview on the 2nd inst. Atkins had been stripping tobacco for Mr. Wm. Tandy the Saturday before and had a good deal of money about him. That night he stayed at the house of a colored man named King McCauley. Monday morning his body was found not far away. The discovery was reported until Wednesday, when an inquest was held by Esq. Penick. The verdict was that he came to his death from some unknown cause. The body bore marks of violence and the neck was broken, evidently by a blow with a stick. The dead man's pocket-book was not found on his person. All the circumstances indicate that Atkins was foully murdered and robbed. He was about 50 years old and had no family. The affair is involved in mystery, but an investigation is being made.

Trimble claims to be the banner Democratic county. At the late election the Democratic ticket received 1,513 votes and the Republican ticket 26.

HERE AND THERE.

There will be a moonlight dance given at Hays' Chapel to-night.
Dr. Seargent has moved his office to rooms over Bank of Hopkinsville.
Thirty-three members of Co. D are at Crab Orchard, under the command of Capt. John Feland.
The ladies of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church cleared about $30 from their entertainment Tuesday night.
Mr. R. H. DeTreville has moved into his handsome new brick cottage on the corner of Virginia and Eighteenth streets.

Steps have been taken to establish a new magisterial district at Beverly, to be composed of parts of the Lougview, Lafayette and Garrettsburg districts.
Dr. J. R. Armistead has let the contract to build his two-story residence at 938 South Main street to Messrs. Forbes & Bro. Work has already been begun.

Sheriff Boyd has appointed Mr. Gordon Hanberry as his deputy. He is a brother of Mr. M. M. Hanberry, who has been the deputy sheriff for the last two years.
A large crowd from the city went down to Cerulean yesterday, some for their health and others to attend the Little River Baptist Association, now in session there.

Mrs. W. B. Young presented her husband a ten-pound package of confectionery last Saturday. Mr. Young was doing as well as could be expected yesterday.—Tobacco Leaf.

A good substantial brick pavement has been taken the place of the dilapidated old plank walk on Clay, between 15th and 16th street. The pavement will be extended north to Tenth street.

Capt. Jas. H. Fitts, who was last year connected with South Kentucky College, has accepted the chair of Mechanics and Physics in the A. & M. College of Virginia, at Blacksburg.

The statement that Mr. B-n McGee was one of the magistrates elected in the Lafayette district was erroneous. Messrs. C. B. Fraser and J. E. Stephenson were the successful candidates.

The Democrats of Montgomery county, Tenn., have nominated R. H. Burney and B. J. Corban for the Legislature. The first is a young lawyer of Clarksville and the second a substantial young farmer.

Mr. J. Wheeler Cayce sold his fine stallion, King Abdullah, last week to Owsley & Tribble, for a very handsome price. Mr. Cayce only owned this celebrated horse four months, having purchased him in Lexington last May.

A moonlight picnic and dance was given at Montgomery Tuesday night last. An excellent band made music and there was a large crowd present and took part in the enjoyments of the evening. Princeton, Cadiz and Bellevue were well represented.

Mr. Austin D. Hicks inserts his card as an insurance agent in this issue. He has a line of first-class fire insurance companies and will be glad to receive a share of the business of Hopkinsville and surrounding country. We take pleasure in commending him to the public as a most worthy and deserving young man. His office is with Mr. E. P. Campbell, over the Bank of Hopkinsville.

The time has come when there is urgent demand for a third voting place in the city of Hopkinsville. At the last election 1,701 votes were cast in the city and the crowd was so large around the polls during the greater part of the day that it put the patience of business men to a severe trial to wait their turn. There ought to be another voting place established at the depot, to embrace all that part of the district east of the railroad.

Wednesday morning Elgin Sands whipped a little colored girl who had given him some impudence. Lella Jackson, a sister of the flogged girl, took the matter in her own hands and renewed the trouble. Sands struck her. They were both brought before Judge Brasher, and each fined $2.50 and half the cost, which they paid and were released. Two other colored women took part in the row, but the evidence was insufficient against them and they were discharged.

Mr. Milton Gant has associated himself with the extensive dry goods establishment of A. J. Mitchell, of Owensboro, and will leave next Monday to locate permanently in that city. It is with much regret that we chronicle the departure of Mr. Gant from Hopkinsville. He has long been an agent of this city, having been engaged in the mercantile business for many years. We heartily commend him to the Owensboro people as a gentleman of the highest character, a reliable business man and a progressive, enterprising citizen. He will remove his family to Owensboro within the course of a few weeks.

HIS LAST TRIP.

A Brakeman Loses His Life.
Franklin P. Martin, a brakeman, was killed at the crossing of Seventh street, in this city, at 7:45 o'clock Monday night. Freight train No. 64, northbound, was running at the rate of four miles an hour, and Martin in passing over the top of the train missed his footing and fell between the cars. One empty car passed over him, producing instant death. He was taken into the depot and the coroner summoned. The inquest was deferred until the next morning and in the meanwhile the dead body was prepared for burial. The right leg was broken at the thigh, the flesh being cut and torn. The wheel had also passed across his breast bruising and crushing it, but not otherwise mutilating the body. Papers in his pockets established his identity. He belonged to the Knights of Labor Assembly No. 6552, at Bowling Green, Ky., as was learned from a card recommending him to the friendship and protection of the order for one month and 20 days from June 26th, 1886, which was signed by Thos. Brice, W. M., and E. O. Upham, R. S. Deceased was apparently about 33 or 34 years of age and his name would indicate that he was born during Pierce's candidacy or administration, 1852-7. He was above medium size, weighed about 160 pounds, had a brown mustache and dark hair and eyes. He was making his first trip as brakeman on 64, Fenwick conductor and Bateman engineer. He got on as a substitute at Edgeland and intended to get off at Earlington. He had previously made one round trip with conductor Clegg, which was the extent of his experience on the L. & N. He claimed to have had experience on the C. O. & S. W. The inquest was held Tuesday morning and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts detailed above.

A MIDNIGHT BLAZE.

Dwelling House Burned Monday Night.

The fire alarm aroused people from their beds at midnight Monday night and the residence of Mr. Newton Payne, on Ninth street, was discovered to be burning down. The fire company turned out, but not in time to save the house. It was entirely destroyed with a good part of its contents. None of the family were at home excepting Mr. and Mrs. Payne, who did not know of the fire until aroused by the neighbors. The fire originated in the vicinity of the kitchen stove. The building was a two-story frame and being an old house it burned very rapidly. It was the property of Ethel Mills, the infant heir of the late Wm. Mills. It was insured for $2,000 in the Home Co., of New York, which is nearly as much as it was worth. Mr. Payne had $700 on his furniture and household effects, a portion of which was saved. A purse containing a considerable sum of money was saved by Fireman McCamy after the building had been abandoned. A young man named Gooch was knocked senseless by a spring mattress which was thrown from an upstairs window. He was taken home in an unconscious condition but proved to be only stunned. A large crowd turned out and some of the young men gave themselves away by appearing with their collars and cravats on.

This is the second time Mr. Payne has been burned out within the last few years. His neighbors sympathize with him in his misfortune. Mr. Jno. W. Payne, his son, also lost heavily by the fire. He and his wife were absent from home and their room, which had just been elegantly furnished, was unoccupied. A part of the furniture was gotten out, but it was badly broken up and otherwise damaged. His wife also lost all of her wedding presents and a good deal of her wardrobe. There was no insurance on these effects. The entire losses will probably aggregate $4,000, upon which there was insurance to the amount of $2,700. The fire caught from a defective flue in the kitchen.

The State Encampment.

Crab Orchard presents a war-like appearance now with the 528 soldiers of the State Guard encamped there. They arrived Saturday and were welcomed on every hand by the citizens and guests, especially by the fair portion of the latter whose bright eyes beamed a welcome more genuine even than that expressed more formally by Judge Thomas W. Varnon, whose address appears in full in the Courier-Journal. The camp is named in honor of Gov. Hindman and is most beautifully situated on the hill in front of the office of the Springs, commanding a fine view of the picturesque surrounding country. Col. M. H. Crump is in command and a more capable and courteous officer could hardly be found. Adjutant General, John B. Castleman, who was not expected till this week, surprised him by appearing on the scene Saturday, and expressed himself much pleased with the arrangements of the camp and the detail of affairs generally. The General is over six feet and in appearance and bearing is the typical soldier. Gov. Knott made a master stroke when he tendered him the position that he fills so creditably. Drs. D. W. Randall and Clark, the surgeons, are on hand but it is likely their positions will be sinecure during the present encampment. The battalion is composed of Companies A, B, C and D, of Louisville; Second Battalion, Battery A, Louisville; Owsley Rifles, Lancaster; Boone Rifles, Mayfield; Third Battalion, Company A, Bowling Green; Company B, Monarch Rifles, Owensboro; Company C, Allensville; Company D, Hopkinsville. The routine duties are as follows: Reveille, 6 a. m.; Sergeant call, 6:30; breakfast, 7; sick call, 7:30; guard mounting, 8; drill squad and company, 9 to 10; inspection, Sunday, 9 to 10; church call, 11; Sergeant's call, 12:30 p. m.; dinner roll call, 1; dress parade, 6; supper, 7; tattoo, 10:30; taps, 11. Gov. Knott will arrive Thursday, and Friday will inspect the battalion. Friday night the military ball will be given, while every night during the week and until next Tuesday something special is on the programme. The Springs company is especially liberal to Lincoln county people who ought to patronize the place largely.—Stanford Interior Journal.

Important Movement.

THE C. O. SUBMITS A PROPOSITION TO BUY AND FINISH THE I. A. & T.

Hopkinsville to Be Connected With That Road, Which Will Be Made a Standard Gauge.

(Nashville American 11 inst.)
CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Aug. 10.—(Special.)—A large and enthusiastic meeting of subscribers was held at the court house to consider the proposition from the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad to complete the I. A. & T. line. Gen. Echols, of the Chesapeake & Ohio, was here last night and met a number of gentlemen in private, stating the nature of the contract between Maj. Gordon and Mr. Huntington. By this contract Gordon turns over all the stock and bonds except the bonds held by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, also the road-bed, right of way, franchise, etc., to the Chesapeake & Ohio. Also the citizens are to transfer all bonds and stock held by them by reason of the money paid, and the city of Clarksville has executed its bonds to the amount of $50,000, 6 percent, for which the road is to give a return of 4 percent, preferred stock. All such guarantees, funds and stocks are to be placed in the hands of Mr. R. A. Robertson, of Louisville, as trustee, to hold and turn over to the C. O., when the contract of that company is completed with, and for this consideration the C. O. is bound by contract to complete the I. A. & T. to Princeton, a first-class standard gauge road, to be operated as part of the Newport News and Mississippi Valley system. This proposition contemplates building a branch of the road into Hopkinsville, for which negotiations are pending with that city.

The meeting was very enthusiastic for the proposition and developed more speaking talent than a woman's missionary society. Two gentlemen took the position in favor of letting the L. & N. have it, arguing that one railroad was better than two, that the river afforded enough competition, and two roads would injure the town. Such arguments warmed up the friends of progress, and made the meeting lively, but all good feeling prevailed.

A vote was taken, and the proposition accepted with great unanimity, and a committee appointed to procure the signatures of all the subscribers, and another committee to wait on the City Board of Mayor and Aldermen and procure an ordinance submitting a vote of the people to the proposition. There is no doubt that the tax will be voted for, by over two-thirds of the citizens. General Echols spoke of the many benefits that would be derived by this enterprise, and the least among the many was the reduction of 4 cents per bushel on coal, which amounts to $20 per car, which will pay the tax in three years.

This change in the situation strikes the Louisville & Nashville people with great surprise, as they felt sure they had the little road safe in their grasp, and talked about the future use. Gen. Echols, in stating all the particulars of the trade, etc., paid a high compliment to Mr. Gordon's energy, remarking, he had been after Mr. Huntington two years for this trade, all the while expressing his great desire to carry out his obligations to the people of Clarksville, and like the woman before the unjust judge, had secured the favor by persistence. Clarksville people are happy in full confidence of securing the Huntington system.

Bethel Association.

The sixty-second annual session of Bethel Association will be held with the Russellville Church, in Russellville, Ky., beginning at 10 o'clock a. m., Tuesday, August 17th, 1886. The following arrangement has been made with Col. Atmore, of the L. & N. R. R.

Persons attending the Association will get from the ticket agent at the stations at which they purchase tickets, certificates stating that they have paid full fare to Russellville. These certificates properly filled out and signed by the clerk of the association will entitle the holder to return, at one-third full fare, provided not less than twenty-five such certificates be signed. J. O. FERRELL, Clerk.

The Rowan county troubles may be considered settled. Craig Tolliver and Cook Humphreys, the leaders of the rival factions, have signed an agreement to leave the county permanently. Tolliver will locate in Kansas or Missouri and Humphreys will go to Texas. There will be no tears shed when these worthies take Horace Greeley's advice and go west to grow up with the country.

Col. Thos. L. Jones, of Newport, is in a fair way to recover from his late spell of illness.

"A careful and rigid examination was made during the year into the affairs and condition of this company, and it was found to be in a sound and solvent condition. No pains were spared by the examiners to make the examination as thorough as possible, and the result was entirely satisfactory to the company and holders of its policies."—Kentucky Insurance Commissioner's Report 1884.
